

Worship Director

Christian Layman Church

JOB SUMMARY:

Christian Layman Church, a non-denominational church in the San Francisco (east) Bay Area, California is seeking a part-time worship director to foster a dynamic worship experience during our Sunday morning service. He or she will lead our current leaders as well as recruit and mentor new leaders for the future. The worship director will report to and work directly with the lead pastor in planning each Sunday worship service.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Lead Sunday worship with worship teams.
- Train and equip existing worship leaders, as well as recruit and develop new worship team members and leaders.
- Collaborate with the various Sunday service ministry teams to design a unified and integrated service.
- Lead monthly worship leader meetings and quarterly worship ministry gatherings.
- Meet with individual leaders and ministry groups for personal leadership development and discipleship.

QUALIFICATIONS:

This position requires a lead vocalist/musician with a passion for worship. The candidate must have practical experience in planning and leading worship services; able to lead both small (1-3 people) and medium (4-7 people) sized bands. Candidate must be capable of teaching other musicians how to sing and how to play an instrument. He or she should have a strong biblical foundation for wise management in a church setting, as a mature believer of Jesus Christ. The worship director must become a member of Christian Layman Church and make CLC his/her home church and place of worship. Theological training desired, but not required.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

We desire to fill this position as soon as possible. Qualified individuals should send a dvd or links (MP3) of you leading worship or singing, a cover letter stating why this position is for you and a resume to:
